Accepted workorders are no longer shown in list

Accepted orders are placed in the active orders list.

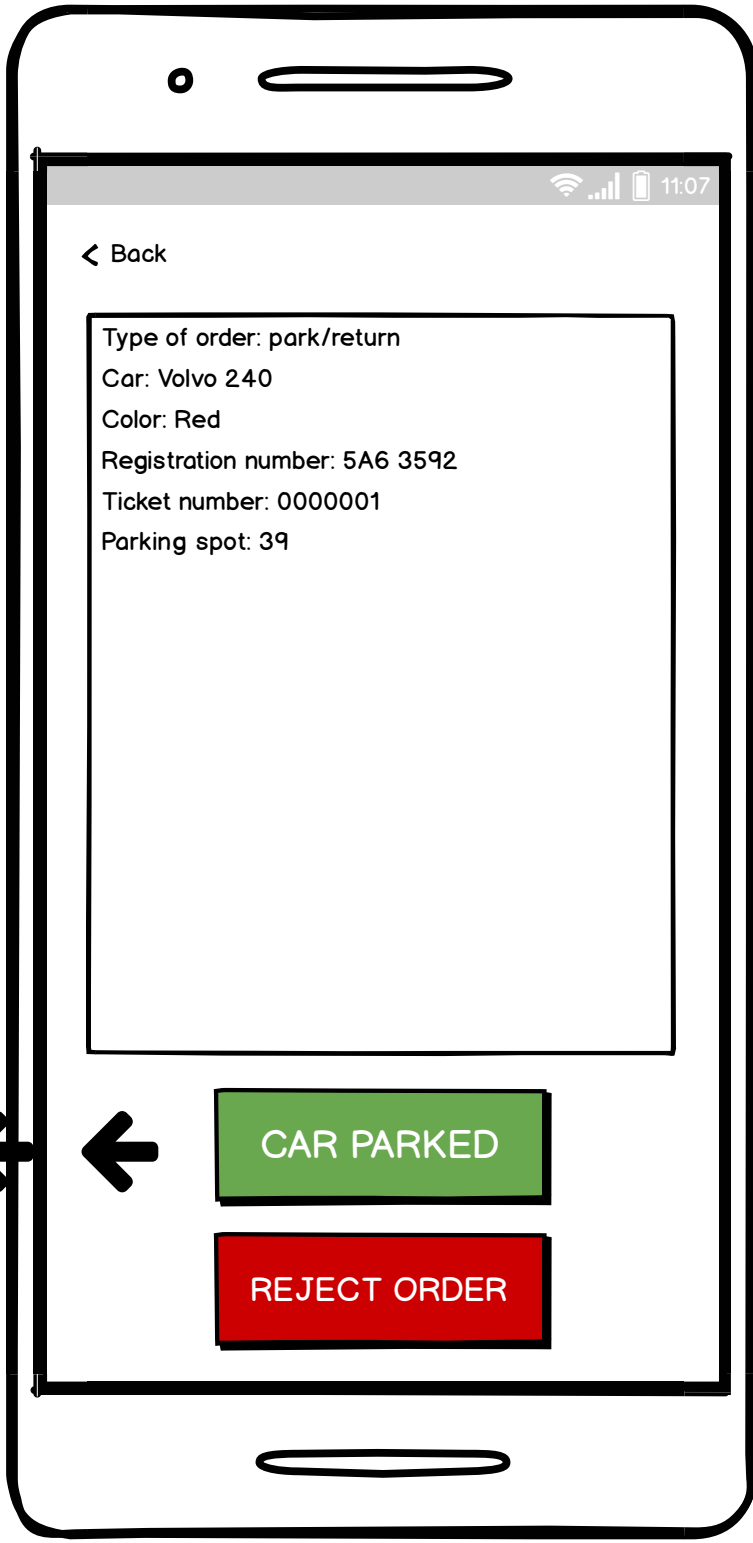

When the valet receives a return order, it is placed in this list.

When the valet accept the order the order is placed in the "active orders" section. And is no longer visible in the pending park list nor to other valets. The order is marked as handled.

The valet can choose to either return the car or renounce responsibility of the work order. (If the car is a super expensive car)

If car returned is pressed, the work order is no longer visible in the return list.

CAR RETURNED

The valet can choose to either park the car or renounce responsibility of the work order. (If the car is a super expensive car)

If car parked is pressed, the work order is no longer visible in any list until a return is ordered.
